

Francine DEPRAS

Sociologist - Independent researcher (Sociology and public policies)

After studying classical literature and social psychology, my professional activity took place in 3 periods:

The first from 1970 to 1980: executive in various private companies and research in the thematic action programs of the Ministry of Research.

The second from 1980 to 2000, creation and management of the company Mouvement - Environnement - Communication, urban socio-economy, mobility, public policies.

Since 2000, consultant and commitment in various associations

2019, member of the management board of the French prospective company

2016, founding member of the International Campus for an Ecological Civilization (CICE)

2015 vice-president CMA, delegate to UNESCO

2003 European Social Forum of Paris - Saint-Denis - Val-de-Marne - in charge of solidarity funds.

2000 - Secretary General Association Complex'cité

1994 - Vice President of the European Association Euroqualitas (Spain, Portugal, Greece, France)